SHOE WORKERS' DISPUTE

The Federation of Labor Makes a Decision Concerning It.

The Revocation of Charters of the Brockton Unions Legal, But for the Interest of the Organization the Action Will Be Rescinded-Compers Will Go to Milwankee.

The executive council of the American Sederation of Labor met yesterday at headquarters at Typographical Temple. All the members of the council were present except P. J. McGuire, who is detained in Philadelphia on business concerning the Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of

The subcommittee appointed Tuesday to report upon the dispute between the Boot and Shoe Workers' Union and the boot and shoe workers of Brockton, submitted the following, which, after considerable discussion, was unanimously adopted:

"The executive council of the American Federation of Labor, having taken into Tedical's Discovery consideration the entire subject, decides-"That the call for and the holding of the convention of the Boot and Shoe Workers' Union at Rochester, N. Y., was legal and
